

There is no better way to enrich one's life or deepen faith than through group travel to sacred sites of Goddess. Here in particular, one man's mythology is another's religion, as ancient and modern aspects of Goddess overlap, fading the line between indigenous belief, traditional religion and reconstructed spirituality.

The feminine face of God is alive and well in the areas around Mexico City and we invite you to open your heart and gift yourself with this opportunity to make memories you will embrace for decades to come.

Most never realize, Mexico City, and sacred sites nearby, have long been home to the Sacred Feminine, once called She Who Existed Before Creation. Travelers can stand in holy places long revered as sites of divine intervention and apparitions of the Divine Creatrix.
